Proverbs 11:25

We have a wonderful opportunity to be generous with our time and bless and refresh another.... And in return God says we will also be refreshed.

Many of you know Joey Lee Humble, a single mother who has been attending our church. She is in desperate need of some help in completing her house. So today after our Special Business Meeting we are having a work day up at her place. She lives about 3 miles from Bar-M. Bring a picnic lunch and come prepared to mud, tape and dry-wall. It is a gorgeous location and we are praying for a beautiful day! Please come and help and be blessed it will be a great day of fellowship and fun!

Directions:

- Go through Mission-past the agency
- Stay on this road until you get to Thorn Hollow where there is an old white church that has been turned into a residence.
- Turn right onto Bingham Road- there is another Bar-M sign.
- Joey's house is just before the 25 mile marker so if you see that go back one driveway.
- The house is on the right hand side and is tall and green.
